

Splash Art Auction & Gala

Preview Exhibition

September 20 – October 15, 2021

Dana Claxton

Geoffrey Farmer

Colleen Heslin

Arts Umbrella presents a wide-ranging exhibition of painting, sculpture, drawing, photography, collage, and print media. Held annually at the Pendulum Gallery since 2003, this show is a preview of the works to be auctioned at Splash Art Auction & Gala on October 23, which returns for 2021 with an innovative hybrid event experience, hosted in-person at The Fairmont Hotel Vancouver and streamed online to reach art enthusiasts across Canada and around the world.

The preview exhibition provides an opportunity for the public to view close to 100 one-of-a-kind artworks entirely donated by contemporary artists from Canada and abroad, including Dana Claxton, Douglas Coupland, Stan Douglas, Geoffrey Farmer, Angela Grossmann, Colleen Heslin, Tiko Kerr, Marie Khouri, Mina Totino, and Don Yeomans, in addition to works by many other notable emerging and established artists. The Splash Preview Exhibition also provides the public with an opportunity to place bids on works from this dynamic and diverse collection.

Splash, presented by Nicola Wealth, will feature glamorous gala experiences, both in-person and at-home. The in-person gala will be held at the Fairmont Hotel Vancouver and feature evening entertainment, elegant food & cocktails, student performances and culminate in the spectacular live auction. The art auction and evening entertainment will be broadcast live from the Fairmont Hotel Vancouver and guests can join from anywhere across Canada and beyond. Dedicated phone bidding will be available for at-home guests, as well as catering deliveries in select cities.

The auction supports Arts Umbrella, Canada's leading non-profit organization for youth arts education, dedicated to ensuring that all young people benefit from equitable access to the arts, regardless of socio-economic circumstances.
